Education Hours for December

December 3 World Hunger Presentation by Deacon Kari Allen

December 10 Christmas Song-Sing-A-Long with Deb Olson and Sue Johnson

December 17 Pastor Sara Bishop and Deacon Lidix Montoya will be here to participate in the worship services on Sunday December 17th. They will also lead the Education Hour with a program that they presented at the Synod Assembly in April. It is a powerful presentation on Immigration.

December 24th and December 31st– There will be no Education Hours because of the Holidays.

At the end of last year the church council made updating our website a priority. That came with many hours of deciding what was to be included on the website and how it was to look.

During these discussions it was thought that we should have a new, updated, more modern logo.

Dathan Boardman designed our new website and the new logo. He had seen the quilt and based the logo on that and all of its symbols and meaning.

We decided not to use this until after the 125th Anniversary as we had a special logo for that.

The logo has been designed for so many uses and it comes in a variety of colors.

There is a larger picture later in the newsletter, the details are enlarged for better viewing.

Longest Night Worship

Also known as Blue Christmas, Our Saviour's will offer this worship service on Wed., Dec. 20 at 6:15 p.m. Not all people feel holly and jolly amidst the festivities leading up to Christmas. Thus has emerged, in recent years in the Northern Hemisphere, the practice of gathering near the winter solstice, when the darkness of the winter season stretches to its furthest limit. All are welcome to this worship service, especially those who find themselves feeling blue this holiday season.

Liturgies like Longest Night are often designed with those who are grieving in mind, especially those who are navigating their first holiday without a beloved one. But others are drawn in, too. This is also a liturgy for those who cannot go home for the holidays, for those who struggle with loneliness, for those whose brains slip toward depression in the winter season or in any other, for those for whom—for any reason—darkness and quiet and candlelight come as a bit of relief in the midst of the commercial Christmas blare.

FREE Advent Devotional

You may pick up your free copy of "Come Emmanuel", this year's Advent devotional for Advent through Jan., 6, 2024. Each day offers an engaging photo to complement the Bible passage, reflection and prayer. The booklet includes additional household blessings and prayers for the season.

Christmas Worship

Christmas Eve candlelight worship with Holy Communion will be offered at 2, 4 & 10 p.m.

There will be no morning worship on Sunday, Dec. 24 nor on Christmas Day the 25th.

Worship on Sunday, Dec. 31 will be service of Lessons and Carols. There will be one service only at 9 a.m.

Good Gifts Catalogs

Do you ever wonder what to give the person who really doesn't need any more stuff? How about giving a gift that makes a difference for someone in need? Your good gift could send a girl to school or provide safe drinking water for a community or bless a family with some chickens or a goat.

Education Hour

On Sunday, Dec. 17, Pastor Sara Bishop and Deacon Lidix Montoya will present the interactive worship "Who is Your Neighbor?" This workshop will focus on those who travel to the United States and what happens to them enroute. Participants will be challenged to wonder why people undertake this journey, what their lives are like here, and what we can do to help our neighbors.

OSLC 125th Anniversary Celebration

There are really no words to summarize what a wonderful time we had at OSLC on November 12th!

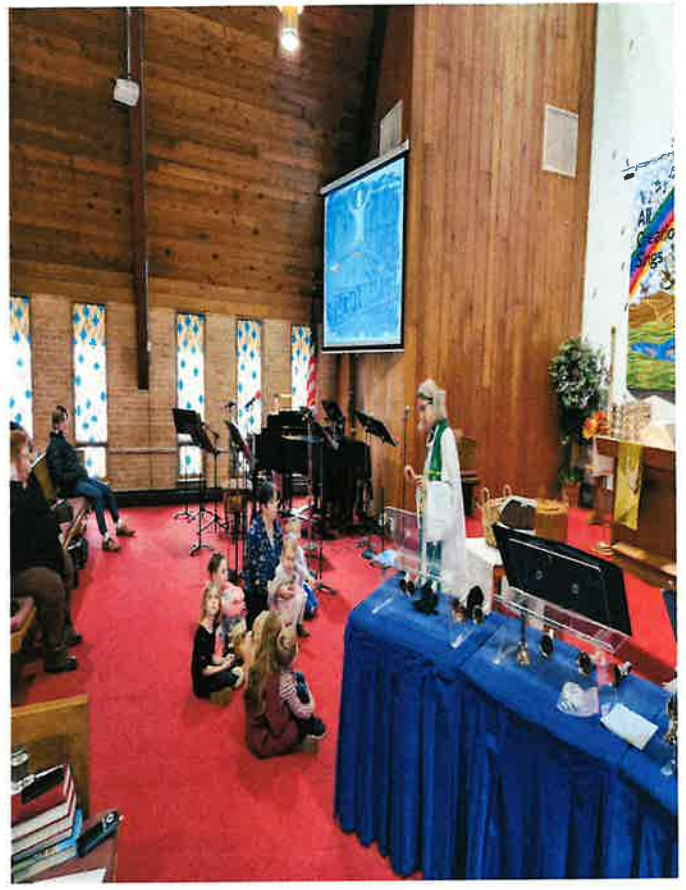

A heartfelt thank you to 125th committee members, all the volunteers, and especially to Ron and Bonnie Buckles, for your exceptional efforts in organizing our 125th Anniversary Celebration! Your dedication and attention to detail made the event truly memorable. From the beautiful music to the delightful banquet, your hard work ensured a joyous celebration of our church's rich history. The presence of Bishop Laurie and other guests also served to make the day special.

Thank you also to Brock Cooley and Nancy Horner and Boy Scout Troop 13 for all the serving, bussing and cleaning, allowing our church members to relax and enjoy.

We are truly grateful for your commitment to making this milestone a success.

The LE Phillips CDC Chippewa County Outreach Office is located in downtown Chippewa Falls. This office is the office that takes care of all the intake services for Homeless persons in Chippewa County and helping those in crisis. The services offered at CDC provide a valuable resource to those in need within the community.

During operating hours Outreach staff is available to provide help in accessing the local support resources like housing, food and needed items. We provide a safe place for those experiencing crisis by offering a listening ear as well as support and resources within their local; Chippewa Falls Community. We work with area agencies such as Family Support Center, Chippewa County Housing Authority, local food pantries, Workforce Resources, Catholic Charities, Chippewa Economic Support and several others. The Outreach office also works closely with The Mission Coalition and area churches to meet the needs of the community members who may be experiencing crisis.

They are the intake center for Hope Village and work with Mike Cohoon on a daily basis.

Their number is 715-861-5002

Emergency Outreach

With colder weather arriving, shelter for individuals experiencing homelessness is a great need as there is no Homeless Shelter in Chippewa County. The Outreach Center is reaching out to the community to raise money for motel vouchers to help those in need. The cost for a motel night is $75.00 per night. All proceeds will benefit individuals needing a night somewhere warm. If you have any questions please call 715-861-5002. Their address is 21 East Grand in Chippewa Falls.

“Journey of Sharing”

Our Committee expresses sincere thanks to all members of the congregation in their participation with the recent stewardship drive. What a fun year along with the celebration of our 125th anniversary. We had a wonderful response, yet fell short of our ambitious goal of 125 intent cards. We ended with 115 cards reported by our final deadline of November 12th. Since additional cards may continue to come in, a final summary will be prepared and put into the next newsletter and for the Annual Report. Again, thank you to all and special thanks to members of the committee: Dawn Pearson, Kathy and Dwayne Palme, Marilyn Murphy, Toni Eckardt, Pastor Karen and Rich Boardman.

Thank you to everyone who has contributed money to buy midweek supper groceries. The funds are much appreciated. Our midweek meals are a very important part of our ministry. Many families enjoy having supper together and all are welcome ! It is great to offer such delicious suppers (thank you meal teams) at no charge.

If you want to donate - write midweek meals on your check memo line. Check to OSLC or give Toni the cash and tell her it is for midweek suppers. Thanks !!

December Outreach

ELCA World Hunger

Working through ELCA congregations and other partners, ELCA is able to reach more communities in need than working alone. They fund relief and development projects to help change systems that perpetuate poverty.

Noisy Offering

About 11 percent of people in our world today are hungry. But ending hunger is about more than food. ELCA World Hunger connects people with resources such as health clinics, microloans, water wells, and education, providing solutions to get at the root cause of hunger and poverty.

Volunteer Opportunities

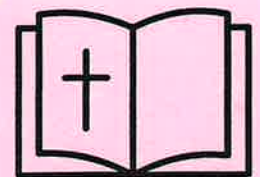

Year-Round: Donations to the Noisy Offering will go to World Hunger, to provide immediate relief to the hungry, but also to connect people with the necessary resources to bring about long term change.

Seasonal: Shop Good Gifts! With the holidays coming up, you may choose from a variety of gifts in several different price ranges, from chicks, to trees, to honeybees! You can select a card to send to the person you are honoring to let them know!

Scripture Meditation

Proverbs 22:9 The generous will themselves be blessed, for they share their food with the poor.

Advent, Christmas and Epiphany blessings to you from Bishop Laurie Skow-Anderson, Synod Ministers, Elizabeth Bartsch, Sara Villarreal Bishop, Diane House, Lidix Montoya, Randy Olson, Laura Ramlow

Mary the Brave: Mary the God Bearer

As a young pastor and working mom, I struggled with the challenges of balancing work and home life, often while carrying a child in my womb, arms, on my hip, in a front or back baby pack, or car seat. Now my children are adults, and I have the joy of watching them carry my grandchildren. They do it differently than I did, their car seats are much nicer than the ones we had, but like us, they carry their children with much love.¹ I still carry my adult children and grandchildren and will always carry them, in my heart with much love. This Advent and Christmas season I'm reflecting on Mary, the God bearer. (In Greek it's Theotokos².) Mary carried Jesus. Like all parents she carried her child with love, but she is also the God bearer. It was a brave thing Mary did to bear God into the world.

To love is a brave thing. It is a brave thing to become a parent. Mothers put their own lives at risk bearing a child in their womb and giving birth. It requires a measure of bravery for parents to bring a child into this world filled with the bad news of climate disasters, gun violence, war, political upheaval, racism, food/water insecurity, and escalating health and higher education costs.

History has painted Mary to be quiet, meek and mild, submissive to God's will, but a closer read shows us that Mary was brave. Mary was neither meek nor superhuman.³ She had grit. She was faithful, courageous, strong and brave. Most of all, she was human. Her encounter with the angel Gabriel, the messenger of God made her brave. She knew that her pregnancy was dangerous and she could die giving birth. She also knew that as an unmarried teenaged mother it would cause upheaval in her family and community. She would give birth to Jesus during Roman occupation, a time of political unrest. Mary was brave. Her encounter with the living God made her brave

Her encounter with God gave her bravery and the faith to see that if God was calling her God would also protect her. It revealed to her that God chooses the people on the margins, those overlooked and underestimated. Bearing God in the world was to bring good news and hope to those oppressed. May Mary, the God Bearer, inspire us all to be brave!

This Advent and Christmas season, I invite you to be Theotokos, God Bearers. I invite you to carry the good news of Christ's birth, life, death and resurrection to all those we meet on this journey of life and the love of Jesus in your hearts always. Bishop Laurie Skow-Anderson

Luke 1: 26ff In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you... "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High,... the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God... For nothing will be impossible with God." Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

Dear friends in Christ,

What a delight it is to greet you as you celebrate your journey of faith by observing 125 years of an abundantly blessed life as a community of faith in Jesus Christ!

I join with your neighbors and friends throughout the Chippewa Falls community and across the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in giving thanks to God for the way that your life in Christ has been a witness to generations of God's people. The ministries of this congregation — Music Programs, Hope Village, Mission Mexico, Book Buddies, and so many more — continue to bear fruit in Christ's church. We look forward in joyful anticipation as we await the redemptive work that God will continue through your hands.

Paul's words to the Philippians Christians capture the thanksgiving and hope of this moment in your history.

I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ.
Philippians 1:3-6

May God, who has begun this good work among you, give you strength and joy as you continue to live God's love through word and deed.

God's peace,

Elizabeth A. Eaton
Presiding Bishop

AN UNPRECEDENTED GIFT

Advent and Christmas Greetings from Bishop Laurie Skow-Anderson

Christmas is celebrating Jesus as the gift we didn't know we needed because our human brain can't imagine
God's generosity.

Jesus is God's unprecedented gift of love for a world in great need. Friends, we live in unprecedented times. The word "unprecedented" means never done or known before. In recent years we've heard of the unprecedented effects of climate change causing more powerful hurricanes and devastating wild fires. We lived through an unprecedented pandemic, and we lament the unprecedented death toll from mass shootings in our country. We worry about the stability of our democracy after an unprecedented political insurrection at our own capital. At times it feels as though we are reeling from one unprecedented disaster to the next. How do we live as people of faith in this time and place? How do we put our Christian faith into action? What if we countered with unprecedented goodness?

This is a true story of unprecedented goodness.

On March 23, 1847, at a meeting in Skullyville, Indian Territory (Oklahoma), a group of tribal members from the Choctaw Nation, missionaries, and traders heard the news about what was happening far away across the Atlantic in Ireland, the Great Famine. The result was an unlikely, unprecedented friendship between the Choctaw and the Irish. Historians estimate that more than a million Irish people died between 1845-1851 from hunger and hunger related diseases.¹ The Choctaw, deeply moved by this story of people they have never met, collected $174, an incredibly amount of money considering the Choctaw's own poverty due to the fact that they had been forcibly removed from their land by the U.S. government by an unprecedented act of cruelty just a little over ten years earlier. At the time of the donation many Choctaw were living in poverty with inadequate house and food. One historian writes, "It is difficult to Jesus also saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. ³ He said, "I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put in more than all of them. ⁴ For they all offered their gifts out of their wealth. But she, out of her poverty, put in everything she had to live on. Luke 21:2-4 imagine a people less well-positioned to act philanthropically." Records show that the donation was sent to New York City to buy grain and food that was shipped across the Atlantic. Seven Irish newspapers published an account of the generous Choctaw. Why were the Choctaw so compassionate and generous? Why are we so surprised by their generous gift? Perhaps the Choctaw and the Irish were connected by their common experience of colonization, mistreatment and suffering.

Ireland had been colonized by England and forced into a land tenure system that enabled English landlords to gain profit from the Irish tenants farmers while leaving the farmers destitute. Tenant farmers raised crops to pay the landlord's rent and to feed

"We are never too poor to give or too rich to receive." ² a favorite proverb of Bishop Joseph Bvumbwe, Evangelical Lutheran Church of Malawi their own families they grew potatoes. A disease, blight, to the potato plant caused the famine. The English refused to help and often blocked aid to the Irish.

The Choctaw were forced from their tribal territory by the U.S. government when President Andrew Jackson signed the Indian Removal Act in 1830. The Choctaw were tricked and threatened into ceding 25,000 square miles of their land in Mississippi and were forced to walk 500 miles to Indian Territory now Oklahoma. Thousands of Choctaw died during that winter's blizzards from disease, and starvation walking what is now called the Trail of Tears and Death. With that memory still in their lived experience, the Choctaw had compassion and collected money ($174) to be sent to those who were also suffering a great injustice 4,000 miles away in Ireland. It was truly a gift of unprecedented goodness, unprecedented generosity.

This story was largely forgotten until 1990 when an Irish writer uncovered it and began to connect with the Choctaw in Oklahoma. It began by Irish citizens joining members of the Choctaw to walk the Trail of Tears and members of Choctaw traveling to Ireland to join in a commemorative Famine Walk. Later there was a visit by the Irish prime minister to Oklahoma and in gratitude for the earlier gift offers of scholarships to pay for Choctaw students to study in Ireland.²

God sent Jesus into our broken, fallen world. Jesus is God's gift of unprecedented love. Jesus is a gift we desperately needed and did nothing to deserve, a gift we could never repay, a gift that transforms our despair and gives us hope.

Advent/Christmas 2023: May this season inspire us to give generously to those who have experienced injustice and live with great need in response to God's unprecedented gift of generosity to us.³

In Jesus' name, AMEN

On January 7, 2023, at 6:30 PM, the series on Creating a Welcoming Community will continue. The January Zoom session will be with Sarah McBride, who is very familiar with the issues affecting LGBTQ+ people and other marginalized groups. Too often the needs of these people are not realized by members of the community.

Sarah Mc Bride will

- inform us how the issues of marginalized people affect everyone.
- challenge our thinking.
- inspire us to make a difference in our community.
- motivate each of us to take bold new steps.
- encourage us to work together to make tomorrow different.

Although not required, reading Sarah's book, Tomorrow Will Be Different, prior to the event would be helpful.
